

American Guild of Organists

Greater Lansing Chapter

Dear Reverend Pastor and/or Music Director:

Each year the Lansing Chapter of the American Guild of Organists invites a recitalist of national or international caliber to share their talents with the Greater Lansing Community. This year we are proud to present a program by an organist of international renown, living and working in the state of Michigan. Hew Lewis is College Organist at Hope College in Holland and Director of Music at St. John's Episcopal Church in Detroit. His program at Plymouth Congregational Church on 1 March at 4:00pm promises to be an exciting event you'll want to share with your congregation.

I would ask you to place as much of the following information as space allows in your church bulletin, next weekend, 28 February – 1 March. There are also posters for high visibility areas of the church and/or choir room. (Please feel free to duplicate if needed.)

Organ virtuoso Huw Lewis will present a recital at Plymouth Congregational Church on E. Grand River Ave. in Lansing on Sunday, 1 March 2009 at 4:00pm. Sponsored by the Greater Lansing Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, Dr. Lewis will play a program that includes music of Bach, Mozart, Franck and Liszt. Admission to the recital is free. There is free parking in the church lots and the building is handicapped accessible.

The Greater Lansing Chapter of the AGO appreciates your help and support in their continuing endeavor to bring quality organ and choral music to our communities and churches. We hope to see you and your parishioners and this year's exciting offering.

Cordially,

Michael Dulac, Dean
Greater Lansing AGO
